

VIMALAKIRTI

Buddhist Practice and Civilian Life

Seminar

Tindle Lounge, Thayer Dining Hall
Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH

FRIDAY, May 8

6PM Meditation
Beginners Welcome

7PM Lecture

SATURDAY, May 9

8AM - 4PM

& SUNDAY, May 10

8AM - 12PM

Pre-Registration Required, $25
Dartmouth Students, Free

(603) 448 4877

<http://www.uvzc.org>

Jay Garfield

Professor of Philosophy, Smith College
Central University of Tibetan Studies, India

Yoshin Radin Osho

Abbot, Ithaca Zen Center, Ithaca, NY

Acharya Michael Greenleaf

Teacher, Karme Choling, Barnet, VT

The Vimalakirti Sutra is a seminal text in the Mahayana Buddhism of Tibet, China, and Japan known for its challenge to monastic piety in distinction to the life of the lay-person. How does a tradition maintain the integrity of its insight and also engage the lives of ordinary people? Vimalakirti offers a response.

