Instructor: Joanna Faraby Walker has taught dance at Stoneleigh-Burnham since 2012, and has experience teaching ballet, contemporary, jazz, hip-hop, and musical theatre. A passionate advocate for performing arts education, Joanna has worked on behalf of young artists in positions with the North Carolina Theatre Conference, the Education Department at Jacob’s Pillow Dance, and the Performance Project. She has an MFA in Performing Arts Management from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts, and serves as the Administrative Coordinator of the Five College Dance Department. Joanna is a proud resident of Greenfield, and looks forward to sharing the joy of dance with local kids during her first year directing the SBS Community Dance Program.
