“GURUMBÉ”: Afro-Andalusian Memories
(CANCIONES DE TU MEMORIA NEGRA)

Friday, October 26, 2018
6:30 to 9:00 pm
Campus Center Carroll Room

Flamenco recital and showing of “Gurumbé, Afro-Andalusian Memories” (2016), an internationally acclaimed documentary on the hidden history of African slavery in Spain and the cultural relevance of Africa for flamenco and Spanish culture. Showing followed by discussion with the director Miguel Angel Rosales and performance with featured dancer Yinka Esi Graves.

Co-sponsored by: Smith College: Lecture Committee, Dance, Latin American and Latino/a Studies, Spanish and Portuguese Department, Lewis Global Studies Center; University of Massachusetts: Interdepartmental Program in Film Studies, Spanish and Portuguese Department, Modern European Studies Program; Mount Holyoke: Spanish, Latina/o and Latin American Studies Department; Five Colleges, Inc. Lecture Fund.