Sexual Harassment
Beyond #MeToo
A TRANSNATIONAL DIALOGUE
FRIDAY, APRIL 12
BREAKFAST 9:30AM, EVENT 10AM
LOCATION: ANDREOLA ROOM, WILLITS-HALLOWELL CENTER

What are the gaps in sexual harassment protections and prevention on college campuses in the US and abroad? How and why is sexual harassment a violation of international human rights standards? Where do we stand as an international community on these issues at this moment in history?

Join us as we explore these issues and others through the perspectives of Mount Holyoke students and alums and students at the American University of Beirut. This is the first of its kind student-led briefing organized by the American University of Beirut and Mount Holyoke College.

Presented by:
Students from the Human Rights NEXUS course, Mount Holyoke College
Students from the Feminist Club, American University of Beirut
Gender Studies Department, Mount Holyoke College
American University of Beirut NYC - Beirut Briefing Series
KIP (Knowledge is Power Project), Olayan School of Business AUB
Five College Women’s Studies Research Center

Photo from https://www.newyorker.com/news/news-desk/one-year-of-metto