The Five College Women's Studies Research Center Presents

FUGITIVE LIFE
The Queer Politics of the Prison State

BOOK SALON
with Stephen Dillon
Assistant Professor
Critical Race and Queer Studies
Hampshire College

During the 1970s in the United States, hundreds of feminist, queer, and antiracist activists were imprisoned or became fugitives as they fought the changing contours of U.S. imperialism, global capitalism, and a repressive racial state. In Fugitive Life, Stephen Dillon examines these activists' communiqués, films, memoirs, prison writing, and poetry to highlight the centrality of gender and sexuality to a mode of racialized power called the neoliberal-carceral state.
